Flight into the Past: Falconry with Historical Greats in Myths and Legends of Northwestern Croatia

*„And some things that should not have been forgotten were lost. History became legend.
Legend became myth.“ (Galadriel)*

TEAMBUILDING PROGRAM

AVAILABILITY: year-round program for promoting tourism in continental Croatia

Falconry is a thousand-year-old Croatian tradition and intangible cultural heritage recognized by the Ministry of Culture and Media of the Republic of Croatia. It was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List in 2021. The power and beauty of birds of prey have captured the imagination of people since the dawn of humanity. Birds of prey symbolized the power of kings, deities, and were often used as motifs in jewelry, paintings, and sculptures.

Croatia is a country with a turbulent history, where many people have lived and left us a vast cultural heritage, which proves that falconry and admiration for the beauty of birds of prey go back to the very beginnings of civilization. Various deities were worshiped and the government changed often. Celts-Illlyrians, Iapodes, Liburnians, Huns, Avars, Romans, Byzantines, Italians, Austrians, and Hungarians are just some among those who left their valuable works of art in Croatia.

A STORYTELLING PROGRAM OF THE PACKAGE TOUR:

DAY 1: VARAŽDINSKE TOPLICE: The Roman god Apollo and his connection to ravens through the story of the goddess Diana Luna; a presentation of a Roman sacrificial offering and a thematic presentation of falconers:

We arrive in Varaždinske Toplice and check into Bernarda, a 4 hotel (the hotel tells the story of thermal water - a special pipeline was laid for the needs of the hotel, so the thermal water used in the hotel is actually brought from an ancient site, where it naturally fills the Roman pool. There are only two places in the world with this type of ancient pool, one is here in Varaždinske Toplice, and the other is in the English spa town of Bath). Our story begins right by the pool with a welcome package: a Roman lemonade and an authentic “Toplička kupališna” cake served by the Roman goddess Diana herself, with a short introduction about the Romans. Diana was the Roman goddess of light, life and hunting, whom the Romans equated early on with the Greek goddess Artemis. Diana was the protector of virgins, hunters, women in childbirth, slaves, wild and domestic animals and forests. Diana Luna takes us on a walk through Varaždinske Toplice and ends her story at the archaeological site of Aquae lasae, where a costumed presentation of an offering to the goddess Diana Luna will take place. The mystical steaming of sulphurous water and the peculiar smell coming from the thermal spring which is thousands of years old certainly contributes to the atmosphere of the Roman spa and bath town of Aquae lasae. After* long baths and cosmetic treatments usually ending with a massage, surrounded by the scents of medicinal herbs, spiced wine and culinary delicacies, anyone could imagine the water nymphs dancing around the sacred spring from which hot medicinal water springs, offering ordinary mortals health and longevity. That is how it used to be when the ancient Romans lived and stayed here... After a tour of the site, you can enjoy a tasting of Roman wine (MULSUM) and Roman flatbreads at the site, both prepared by carefully following the indigenous recipe of the ancient Romans, followed by a special story about the god Apollo and his love for Princess Coronis, during which we will learn why Apollo made all crows holy and gave them the task of announcing death. A short break follows for taking photos and souvenir shopping at the site, after which we head towards Leskovec Toplički, a magical place in the forest where magic becomes reality. There we will see a storytelling presentation by the falconers and witness the next chapter of the tale of the strong connection between the Romans and the birds that played a crucial role in Roman religion in AUGURIA, according to which the most important state decisions were made since ancient times. We embark on a new adventure with our host Almir where we will meet and spend time with his hawks, falcons and owls – the sacred symbol of the goddess Minerva and end the story with the black raven – the symbol of the god Apollo. Through his interesting presentation, we will learn all about the beginnings of falconry, the spreading of falconry in our area, but also learn about the importance and role of birds of prey in nature from ancient times to the present day. After the program, you will be able to take pictures with the birds as a way to capture this unforgettable experience. We then return to the hotel. Now you can relax and reflect on your day while enjoying an original Roman massage in the hotel wellness center. We end our day with a dinner in the special ambiance of Bernarda's biodynamic restaurant.

DAY 2: TRAKOŠČAN: The oldest Croatian legend of the Black Queen and her raven Tugomir

We start our day with breakfast, then we head towards Trakošćan Castle. Trakošćan Castle is a protected cultural heritage site closely associated with the Cili (or Celje) family, as they were one of the first known owners of the castle. The castle was built in the 13th century and was in their possession at the end of the 14th century when they ruled over Zagorje County. This powerful family, also known as the Counts of Cili, ruled a large part of present-day Slovenia and parts of Croatia. They were famous for their political power and influence during that period. You all know the story of the Drašković family, the last owners of the castle, who are responsible for its reconstruction and its present appearance. But I, Barbara of Cili, will take you on a walk and tell you the story of my family and I in a different way. You must be wondering - why here? But let me ask you: Is there a better backdrop than the most enchanting castle in Croatia, whose appearance takes you back in time and creates a magical blend of history and magic? Together, we embark on a journey through the world of dragons, vampires, knights and ghosts, and listen to various other legends that people have been telling about me for years! After the tour we will stop by for lunch at Trakošćan Hotel. Later, you will have some time to wander by the lake and create memories, with the castle always just a glance away in the background. We return to Varaždinske Toplice. There, you will also be able to go for a stroll and explore the town on your own, or spend time at the hotel's wellness center and relax in the thermal water, which Barbara of Cili herself once used to invigorate her body after hunting, riding, and her many love encounters... The day ends with dinner in the hotel.

DAY 3: VARAŽDIN: a walk with Empress MARIA THERESA and her falconer who takes us back in history and explains her decisions with regard to the city of Varaždin, also remembering the first Croatian king – Tomislav

Our next day begins with breakfast in the hotel restaurant. We head towards Varaždin, the former capital of Croatia, where I, Empress Maria Theresa, will be waiting for you. I am taking you on a walk to discover Varaždin through its many hidden stories and interesting objects from our everyday life. We will begin our walk at the Varaždin Cemetery, a protected monument of landscape architecture. With its exceptional blend of horticulture (a Classical-style garden) and artistic monuments by Augustinčić, Frangeš, and Vojković, it ranks among the most beautiful cemeteries in Europe. Remarkably, all this traces back to a visionary decision that I made in 1773. In front of the Second Varaždin Gymnasium there is a sculpture by Nikola Vudrag, commemorating the 1100th anniversary of the Croatian Kingdom and the coronation of King Tomislav. There, I will gladly share his story, with my falconer faithfully at my side. We continue our walk across the charming Miljenko Stančić Square – through the streets and squares filled with angels, beasts, and historical guild signs of this beautiful baroque city. After the tour we will have lunch at the Verglec restaurant in Varaždin based on their traditional menu. After the tour, you will have some time to individually explore the city and purchase authentic local souvenirs at the Angels Museum or at the Square of Traditional Crafts. We say goodbye to Maria Theresa and return to Varaždinske Toplice. In the afternoon you will be welcome to use the hotel wellness, walk around and explore Varaždinske Toplice. The day ends with dinner in the hotel restaurant.

DAY 4: VINICA – OPEKA CASTLE and ARBORETUM through the story of Countess Ferdinanda and Count Marko Bombelles

We begin the day with a bountiful breakfast in the hotel restaurant. We head towards Vinica. Castle Opeka (also called Bombelles Manor) is located in the municipality of Vinica, in the village of Marčan, at the foot of the Macelj Forest, in the northern part of the Hrvatsko Zagorje region. It is surrounded by a large and rich arboretum spread across about 64 hectares. Here, Countess Ferdinanda Bombelles (née Drašković) is eagerly awaiting us. She will tell us her story about the origin of Opeka as it exists today, but also how and why the arboretum was created, which, together with the castle, has become a Cultural Property of the Republic of Croatia since December 2007. After World War II, the castle served various purposes. After its nationalization, it was converted into the residence of Josip Broz Tito during his stay in the Zelendvor hunting grounds. She will also tell us why Opeka Castle is called the "Croatian Versailles" and we shall see for ourselves how the Opeka Arboretum (one of four arboretums in Croatia) has become unique in this area precisely due to the visionary Count Marko Bombelles, who brought in plants from various parts of the world. How far ahead of his time Count Marko was can also be witnessed by the fact that he was the owner of the first car in Croatia. However, Opeka and the arboretum are not the only locations to see in Vinica. We will end our story in Vinica with the "Pranger", or the "pillar of shame". It is a stone pillar that was used to tie up and flog those who would cheat on the measure when selling their products at the fair. Vinica is a municipality in Varaždin County that has had a tradition of sales since 1580 and is a famous fairground. The pillar itself is 260 centimeters high, and on the front part is a round stone bowl that served as a measure at Sunday fairs. The pillar has three sides, and on each side is the head of a man with a mustache. In order not to end up on the pillar of shame, you had to have a "well-tuned Pranger", which was also used for measuring, as there is a stone grain measure on the front of the pillar. On the top of the pillar of shame there is the Latin text "Lustam mensuram tenete 1643." which means "Measure fairly". In Vinica, sentences were pronounced by a city judge called Judex, and the punishment for lying merchants, thieves and even too talkative women was to be tied to this very pillar of shame. We get back on the bus and head towards Zelendvor. Upon arrival, there will be a lunch in a restaurant according to the traditional menu of old hunters: venison goulash with homemade gnocchi. After lunch, we will see a presentation of hunting with birds of prey, which will be shown to us by Count Bombelles himself. The Count will take us back in time with the story of how the Bombelles brought in the first pheasants in Croatia and started organized hunting, with frequent guests of the castle being Austro-Hungarian nobles, such as the Crown Prince Franz Ferdinand who was here seven times, as well as numerous Croatian nobles and King Aleksandar Karađorđević himself. Today, due to the vision of Count Bombelles, we live in an era that is ideal for falconry. Hunting grounds, the first of which was Zelendvor, open their doors wide to falconers, thus enabling rapid progress in working with birds. Although falconry was once a privilege only for certain social classes, the equipment has remained the same to this day – gloves, jesses, hood, block perch. His son Marko Bombelles Jr. is considered one of the most prominent figures in the history of Croatian hunting. Here we will show you that falconry is truly an art, a fine weaving of relationships and the transfer of emotions between man and bird – trust, respect and dedication. We return to Varaždinske Toplice. There you shall be able to take a relaxing walk and explore the town with its surrounding forests or use the benefits of the hotel wellness and thermal water. We end the day with dinner in the hotel restaurant.

DAY 5: VARAŽDINSKE TOPLICE: Roman goddess Minerva and the "Mindfulness" workshop at the Aquae lasae archaeological site

First, we feast! - Breakfast in the hotel restaurant. After breakfast, we will meet the Roman goddess Minerva, who will take us on a walk through Varaždinske Toplice and end her interesting story at the Aquae lasae archaeological site. At the site, we will be take part in the MINDFULNESS WALK workshop: "Source of Consciousness - Water and Forest Meditation in the Aquae lasae Archaeological Park". This workshop is not merely a walk, it is a return to nature, your own body, breath and the silence of the moment in the unique Aquae lasae archaeological park in Varaždinske Toplice. At the ancient Aquae lasae site, where water has been flowing through traces of ancient architecture for centuries, for the first time we are invited on a unique journey. Through the silence of the forest, the whisper of thermal water, this workshop provides a special opportunity to become aware of the present moment and the significance of a culturally preserved environment. This walk is an opportunity to feel connected to the Earth, to ourselves, and to the preserved nature that relaxes and heals. During the walk, we will walk without haste, observe the environment without judgment, and breathe without effort. Guided meditation, simple mindfulness exercises, and the presence of the community will give the participants of this unique workshop a safe space to relax and the opportunity to learn something new related to preserving mental and physical health. We will go down to the hotel for lunch. The afternoon is reserved for relaxation and revisiting the beautiful experiences; we suggest that you complete the experience with an original Roman massage in the hotel wellness center. Dinner at the hotel (for our last night at the hotel, we recommend the "Dinner of the Ancient Romans").

DAY 6: NOVI MAROF: a walk with Countess Louisa Erdödy through the Majur park of the Erdödy family, which takes us back in history and tells the story of the founding of the first private hospital in this area

We begin our last day with breakfast in the hotel restaurant, after which we check out of the hotel. We head to Novi Marof, where Countess Louisa Erdödy awaits us and takes us on a walk to discover the park surrounding her castle, filled with hidden stories and interesting objects from the everyday life of Novi Marof. Around the castle in the 19th century, a beautiful park with numerous indigenous and exotic species was created, which was declared a monument of park architecture in 1962. The statue of the goddess Minerva from the 19th century (from 1869), made of sandstone, is located in the protected nature park of the Special Hospital for Chronic Diseases Novi Marof, in front of the main entrance to the Erdödy castle. The statue stands on a pedestal that is buried in the ground. The height of the statue is 140 cm. In 1923, the Erdödys left Novi Marof, and the castle was converted into a hospital, thus continuing the tradition of healthcare in Novi Marof, which was established by the efforts of Countess Louisa Erdödy, an exceptional pianist and composer, who is also remembered as a great benefactor. Louisa founded a hospital in 1885, which she maintained for twenty years.... How did it all start?
